Winner—B. c. by Falsetto—Fright (trained by H. McDaniel).
Went to post at 2:00. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Falkland came wide at the turn into the homestretch, finished with a rush, caught the leaders tiring and was only cantering at the end. Falernian finished fast on the extreme outside after losing a lot of ground by going so wide. Short Cake showed a good burst of early speed, but tired when the final drive came. Alcom R. dropped out of it in the first furlong, but saved ground at the turn into the homestretch and was closing up at the end. Spencerian tired. Ora McKinney was eased up in the last fifty yards.
Falkland, show, 1 to 2. Falernian, show, 6 to 5. Short Cake, show, 2 to 1. Alcom R., show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. g. by Huron—Lone Princess (trained by F. Daniels).
Went to post at 2:30. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Gus Lanka was on the outside in the best going for the entire trip, raced Latuka into submission in the first half and easily drew away in the last sixteenth. Latuka weakened in the run home. McIntyre took Latuka down on the inside in deep going while rounding the far turn. This caused her to tire and she was driving to the limit at the end to stall off Oclawaha. The latter finished fast and resolutely. Lovable was crowded back at the start, but she did not run her race. Circus Girl ran fairly well. Decoration ran a winning race and closed up fast in the stretch run. This one is worth remembering.
Scratched—37889 Preetorius, 108.
Gus Lanka, show, 4 to 5. Latuka, show, 6 to 5. Oclawaha, show, 6 to 5. Lovable, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. g. by G. W. Johnson—Daybreak (trained by L. Marion).
Went to post at 3:05. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Mayor Johnson was at home in the going, rushed to the front when the start came and set the early pace under restraint, swung out to the good going at the turn into the homestretch and had to be hard ridden all of the last furlong. Tiaga was under a hard drive all of the last quarter and just managed to last long enough to stall off Bard of Avon. The latter finished fast and would have been second in another stride. Sly Boots went up to the leaders on the backstretch, but tired and was eased up in the last sixteenth. Alpaca finished on the inside in the deep going.
Scratched—(43186) The Messenger, 112; 43206*Tommy Foster, 108; 43233 Macbeth, 106.
Mayor Johnson, show, 6 to 5. Tiaga, show, 3 to 5. Bard of Avon, show, evens. Alpaca, show, 1 to 2.

† Coupled in betting. Time, 25½, 50½, 1:16½, 1:42½.
Winner—Ch. f. by Mirthful—Response (trained by S. C. Hildreth).

Went to post at 3:44. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Witfull broke on the outside and was outrun to the first turn. Fuller then took her up on the extreme outside and wore her field down in the run down the backstretch, caught the leaders tiring in the final quarter and came away with a splendid stretch run. Dan McKenna was a contender from start to finish, was well ridden and had every advantage and finished resolutely. Little Scout began slowly, but closed a big gap and finished very fast. Big Ben showed a rare turn of speed for the first six furlongs, but failed in the stretch. Exclamation tired after going six furlongs. Luralighter was a contender until on the turn for home, but tired at the end and was eased up.
Scratched—43217 Major Mansir, 105; 41054 Port Royal, 103; (43231) Inquisitive Girl, 90.
Witfull, show, 3 to 5. Bennett entry, show, evens.

Winner—Ch. g. by Lamplighter—Emma Pickwick (trained by J. Arthur).
Went to post at 4:10. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Little Elkin was favored by the going and went to the front when called on, but had to be hustled along all of the last furlong. Sidney Sabath moved up fast while rounding the far turn, but tired when it came to the stretch drive. Adelante disliked the mud, but finished gamely. Badger showed early speed and Minder kept him on the outside in the good going for the entire trip, but he tired when the final drive came. Claristina tired after going a mile. Larry Wilt was outfooted all the way.

Went to post at 4:45. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. W. J. Deboe held the field safe all the way, raced along with Reckoner on the extreme outside for the entire trip, shook off the latter in the final furlong and was going away at the end. Reckoner ran well, but finished in the middle of the track where the going was sticky and holding. Class Leader made up ground and finished fast. Jove ran a good race. Miss Aubrey showed early speed, but tired after going a half.
W. J. Deboe, show, 1 to 7. Reckoner, show, 5 to 1. Class Leader, show, 4 to 1.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

"Bub" May, acting for a Memphis cotton merchant who contemplates entering the racing game, has purchased from J. V. Shipp of Sunny Slope Farm, Midway, Ky., a bay colt by Gay Lad for $1,500. J. O. Keene claims to have an option on the colt and has left to put his claim before the owner in Kentucky. A sensational quarter negotiated by the youngster is responsible for the demand made by both May and Keene.

J. C. Milam, the Lexington turfman, has sold the stallion Owenton, by Owes—Georgia Kinney, for a private figure to Thaw Brothers, of Dallas, Texas. With him went the mare Golden Harvest. The new owner purposes to found a stud in the Lone Star State.

Robert Tucker, trainer for S. S. Brown, will not go east next season until after the close of the Washington Park meeting.

Little Waugh, the youngster who rode a few races in the colors of James R. Keene, will ride in France next year, having just signed a contract with William Donohue, the American trainer who has charge of a prominent stable there. Waugh was apprenticed to Mr. Keene, but the contract expires January 1 next.

An arrangement was completed last Tuesday at Memphis between R. C. Brien and J. Richard, administrator of the Belle Meade estate, by which the place will continue as a nursery for thoroughbreds. Mr. Brien will conduct the farm as Superintendent and Secretary, a position which he occupied under Gen. W. H. Jackson and also under his son, W. H. Jackson, Jr. The Commoner will remain at the head of the stud, and the young stallion Mont d'Or will also remain at the farm. Both stallions will be used for outside service as well as for the Belle Meade mares.

J. Taylor, the well-known trainer, who made a successful campaign in 1902 on the western tracks with Maggie Felix, has signed a contract to train the extensive racing stable of H. A. Engman, breeder of Hermis, during the season of 1904. Engman will have a large string next season, headed by the two-year-old filly Tootsey Mack, a prominent Oaks candidate and half sister to Hermis.

Barney Schreiber is negotiating with Vic Gilbert and may purchase the contract held by the latter on the services of Hildebrand. The little fellow is riding in good form and would be a useful addition to the St. Louis turfman's stable.

WARNING TO HANDBOOK PATRONS

As there will be no more race results sent over the tickers, the public will have to depend upon information as given out by agents of the different handbooks. Players should do business with reliable agents, as the unreliable ones will be tempted to accept bets on the losers after they receive the winner over the telephone. If a bet is placed late the player should note the exact time and compare with the "off" time in Daily Racing Form, and if you think the result was already known to the layers write a letter, giving name of agent, location and name of agent's principal, and the undersigned will endeavor to adjust the matter.

Went to post at 1:47. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Birkenruth rode a careful, waiting race on Little Margaret, making his move at the right time when well straightened away for home and, catching the leaders tiring badly, won with plenty in reserve. Sir Christopher showed his usual speed and displayed more gameness than usual, was well handled and had no mishaps. Madam Bishop had the speed to act as pacemaker, but tired very badly from the last furlong post home. Flourish got away poorly, but his rider never made a move.

Winner—B. f, by Balgown—Gratitude, by Hyder Ali (trained by R. D. Williams).
Went to post at 2:17. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Eugenie B. showed her usual speed and ran away from her field from the start, winning easily. Annie Robinson ran well, but swerved all over the stretch in the last furlong, interfering with Colonel Bogey and was disqualified. Quest ran a good race and finished fast. Colonel Bogey was going well in the stretch. Metlakatla can do better.

Winner—Ch. f, by Henry of Navarre—Golden Dream (trained by E. Brewster).
Went to post at 2:45. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Ocean Dream got away well and was taken back, waiting to the stretch before making her move, then had to be ridden hard at the end to stall off Bragg. The latter, badly outrun in the first half mile, closed up very fast and would have won at a sixteenth farther. Beautiful and Best ran a fair race. Redan and Tower of Candles raced each other into exhaustion and quit badly.

Winner—B. g, by Bassettlaw—Idol (trained by J. Robinson).
Went to post at 3:08. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won handily; second driving. M. F. Tarpey was fit and ready, took the lead quickly, set the pace from start to finish and was lucky all through the race. Nitrate was away well and ran a good race, but may have been short as he tired in the last furlong. Haviland was almost left, ran a really remarkable race and with an even break would have won. Dupont did his best but was out-classed. Mezzo ran a dull race.
Scratched—43297 Bragg, 106; 43281 Grail, 100.

Went to post at 3:37. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Moor is in grand form, ran in a good position to the stretch and came away after a sharp drive when a furlong out, winning going away at the end. Jim Hale ran his best race. Knapp waited too long with Erne, which was going great guns at the end. Anvil showed the most early speed but tired badly at the end.

Went to post at 4:04. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Orsina appeared to be winning easily at the end of the paddock, but Spencer had to ride him hard at the end to stall off Fortunatus. The latter closed up an enormous gap and would have won in another stride. He is a great stretch runner and very game. Cloche d'Or showed speed but tired badly at the end of six furlongs. Went to post at 2:39. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won in a canter; second easily. Soufriere got away in the lead, then ran well in hand close behind the pacemaker to the stretch, where she closed up with a fierce rush, winning off by herself. Effervescence, after a game and misguided effort to outrun the early pacemaker, tired sufficiently to fall an easy victim to the winner and was an easy second. Oro Rose is rounding to and will make good at an early day, displayed brilliant and unexpected speed for five furlongs, tiring badly right at the end. Miss Ringlets finished with a tremendous rush and would have been third in another stride. Ethel Abbott closed a big gap from a bad start. Lady Fosse finished well. Gottlieben failed to stay. Lady Atheling can do better.

Went to post at 3:08. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Mountbank, on the outside, ran lapped on the pacemakers to the stretch, where he wore them down, coming away fast right at the end. Matt Hogan broke on the inside and raced in close quarters to the stretch, where he again had a rough journey, but made up ground steadily and finished a fast going second. Aunt Polly found the cuppy track tiring and, after forcing the pace from the start, succumbed in the last hundred yards and may have been short. Elfin King finished fast through the stretch and ran a good race. Quiet was knocked out of the race directly after the start and closed a big gap in the last half. Rustic Girl had worked fast trials, but failed to make good today and is worth remembering. Florinel II. is strictly a mudlark. Jennie Hughes found these too fast.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Superintendent Clark, at Sheephead Bay, has his course in excellent condition since the recent rain. The harrows were put on as soon as was practicable after the wet weather, and they worked the surface into good condition. Several trainers continue to have regular daily gallops over the course, and it is promised that its excellent condition will be maintained as long as weather will permit. This will make "the Bay" a good training ground until the snow comes, and the present care will make its spring preparation much easier of accomplishment.

Work is going along on the new training track, and now there seems to be an excellent prospect of its being ready for use before the opening of the season. A large force of men and teams have so far advanced the work that a good idea is obtained of just what the course will be when it is completed, and it has met with the universal approbation of all horsemen who have seen it.

Africander is still given very much his own way at Gravesend, and this great three-year-old is thriving wonderfully under his own direction. Dick Miller has not asked anything of the colt since his retirement, after the running of the September Stakes and in his idleness he has grown and taken on a much more robust appearance than he had at any time during his racing campaign. A paddock was constructed in the upper end of the infield for his especial use, and when the weather is fair he gallops about the little plot in perfect contentment. There is now a suspicion of a leg injury that caused his retirement, and when he is taken out for a serious preparation for his four-year-old campaign there is every indication that he will return with all the great promise that he fulfilled in the season that is gone.

Myron McHenry, the well-known trotting horse driver, made his first step towards entering the running horse game last Thursday. He purchased from Jules Garson the two-year-old ch. f. Any Day, by Locohatchee—Happy Day, and has turned her over to Archie Zimmer to train.

Rufus Bush has sold Ethel Lee, by Whistle Jacket—Marmora, to Capt. S. S. Brown. She is in foal to King Hanover and will be shipped from New Orleans to Captain Brown's farm near Lexington. Ethel Lee is the dam of Crescent City, a horse that Mr. Bush bred. Crescent City is by Midstar—Ethel Lee, and won several races as a two and three-year-old.

After winning the fourth race last Thursday at New Orleans Aggie Lewis, entered to be sold for $1,000, was run up to $1,500 by Albert Simons and knocked down to him. Simons subsequently sold her to E. Trotter.

E. K. Wheeler, owner of Inquisitive Girl, Tommy Foster and several others, has taken his horses from the charge of Jack Baker, who has been training them at New Orleans.

Jockey W. Hennessey, who has been doing some good riding at the New Orleans meeting, has signed a contract to ride in the east next season for M. L. Hayman.

A carload of horses has arrived at New Orleans from Lexington in charge of T. H. Sellers. The lot consists of twelve two-year-olds and four yearlings, the property of Frank Kelly.

"The story sent out from Lexington to the effect that we have been offered $7,500 by Capt. S. S. Brown for the yearling daughter of Sir Dixon—Sallie McClelland is not true," says P. J. Gorman, of the firm of Gorman & Bauer. "We did have an offer of something approaching that figure from a party in New York, but it was promptly declined. She is not for sale. She has shown me more than I believe any filly at her age ever did show an owner or trainer, and she is worth just as much to Gorman & Bauer as a racing proposition as she is to anybody else in the business." This filly is now at Oakley Park, occupying the old Fleischmann barn, along with the rest of the Gorman & Bauer string, which is being trained by Bob McMillan. In the autumn she was sick, and for a fortnight in October and November her condition was such that her owners thought she would die. She pulled through, however, and is now in fine shape. She has been named Martha Gorman for Mr. Gorman's baby daughter. There are four other yearlings in the string, which have been named as follows:

Donald Wiley, br. c, by Esher—Excellenza. Felix Fiddle, ch. c, by Pirate of Penzance—Tasmania.

Jungle Imp, br. c, by Pirate of Penzance—Marmora (dam of Zonne).

Irish Jew, b. c, by Sorcerer—Lady J., dam of Springdale and Mayme Coden.

The little boy, Marion B. Wood, has been apprenticed to Gorman & Bauer, and a license has been asked for him for 1904.

Flags were at half mast at Montgomery Park last Thursday in respect for the death of J. M. Peters, treasurer of the New Memphis Jockey Club, and a well-known figure in jockey club circles in the west. The deceased succumbed to a sudden attack of illness Thursday morning, and the end was totally unexpected.
